Upon ordering a piece from any range featured on the Khazimula Jewellery website, books or any representative a min of 50% deposit is required at the time of order. This is purely to cover the cost of materials. Payments in the UK can be done through Paypal (hedgersuk@aol.com), cheque, cash or a bank transfer. Please note that work will only be undertaken once the payment has cleared in the account. Payments in South Africa are done via EFT, cash or cheque. Banking details are available from the South African representative. Any personalised pieces of jewellery will be photographed and sent via e-mail to the client for approval upon completion. We request that the client study the photographs carefully, for spelling errors, design errors or any other requests that were made. If you have any questions or queries at this stage, we ask that you get in touch immediately before the items are sent. This gives Janina the opportunity to either rectify the problem or explain the reason why it was done a certain way before the item is sent. In failing to reply or respond to an e-mail we will automatically assume that the client is happy and the item will be sent as is. No personalised piece of jewellery can be sold on so we ask that you please comply with this condition. Confirmation and approval will be an automatic commitment to full purchase and full payment upon receipt of the item. No returns will be accepted after approval except for details that is not apparent on a photograph such as a ring size. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact us.
